

Eventing season in

Every week of the 2015 eventing season, we have brought you the pick of the week's statistics online. To finish the year, Pippa Roome and Cathy Comerford pull out their favourites

SIXTY ONE

The percentage of British Eventing fixtures where at least one dressage score of less than 20 (80%) was recorded

2,499

The number of British Eventing sections run this year

£6,750 Total prize fund in the CIC2* and CIC* at Floors Castle in May

22

The number of months Nicky Roncoroni's four-star horse Trig Point spent on the sidelines with health problems before returning to competition at Barbury in July

14 Horses competed by Oliver Townend at Burnham Market (1) in April. Nine of them (64%) finished in the top four

The number of riders in the top 10 at Burgham (1) CIC3* who had not ridden at a senior championship at that time – the winner (and third-placed) Gemma Tattersall was the one, although she made her senior championship debut later in the year at Blair

20 Age of Abigail Boulton, the youngest rider to complete Burghley this year

8 Percentage of women riders in the BE100u18 at Treborough Hill (2) in August

168

British Eventing fixtures run this year

35

The number of clear cross-country jumping rounds in the European Championships at Blair in September

78

FEI sections run in Britain this year

6 Consecutive FEI wins for American rider Marilyn Little's RF Scandalous, culminating in individual gold at the Pan Am Games in July

$50,000 Increase in the prize fund at Kentucky this year, up from $250,000 to $300,000 (about £200,000)

280 Volunteers at Frickley Park (1) in July numbers

10 (90%) Best British Eventing dressage score this season. Two pairs achieved this mark – Lucinda Crawford and Vattrick (above left), who won BE100open section F at Hutton in the Forest (2) in September, and Casey Parker and Eeyore DS (above right), who finished second in BE90 section at Little Downham (3) in October

10 The dressage mark Vittoria Panizzon and Sovereign Pride received for their final halt in the BE100 at Upton House in July. This is Vittoria's second ever 10 – her first was received at the same event two years ago

38 Horses withdrawn after either dressage or showjumping across six sections on a wet Saturday at Gatcombe (1) in March. Sunday's classes were cancelled

15

1-2-3

William Fox-Pitt took the top three spots in open novice section D at Portman in April on Ramdam De Mons, Reinstated and The Soapdodger

26.3

(82.5%)

Best FEI dressage score in Britain this year. This was Oliver Townend and Cillnabradden Evo's winning score in the CCI2* at Osberton

4

Number of placings in the top five in *Barbury's CIC3 in July which went to New Zealand riders

Number of wins in a row Harry Meade had this year with Tenareze – who won both young horse World Championships at Le Lion under French rider Thomas Carlile before joining the Brit

21 Age of Barry's Best, Rosie Thomas' four-star campaigner, who has competed at open novice and intermediate this year with Susannah Watts

2 Number of sub-20 dressage scores recorded by French rider Arthur Duffort at Kelsall Hill (1) in April – both horses went on to finish second

2,382

771

Miles driven by British rider James Alliston, together with fellow West Coast rider and Rolex rookie John-Michael Durr, with their horses from James' base in San Ramon, California to the Kentucky Horse Park to compete at the American four-star in April

Number of Twitter followers Ben Hobday's Mulry's Error had in late April when he was accepted into Badminton from seventh on the waiting list this week. By the time this feature went to press, he had 2,266. Way to go, @Mr_Mulry

• READ all our "Eventing in numbers" features from 2015 – one for every week of the British eventing season – at www.horseandhound.co.uk/tag/eventing-in-numbers

Number of sections at Stafford (1) in March won by a male rider, out of 12. Joseph Hughes-Jones kept the boys' end up by taking BE90 section C on Moelwyn Gerallt